

TERMS OF USE

- privacy statement -

Dear User, your privacy is important to us. This privacy statement explains what personal data we collect from you and how we use it. We encourage you to read the summaries below. Both, user registration and activation require that you approve the terms of use summarized in this document.

Personal Data We Collect

We collect data to operate effectively and provide you the best experiences with our products. You provide some of this data directly, such as when you create an account. We get some of it by recording how you interact with our products by, for example, using technologies like cookies, and receiving error report.

When you are asked to provide personal data, you may decline. But if you choose not to provide data that is necessary to provide a product or feature, you may not be able to use that product or feature.

The data we collect include the following:

Name and contact data. We collect your first and last name, email address, postal address, phone number, and other similar contact data.

Credentials. We collect usernames and passwords used for authentication and account access.

How We Use Personal Data

We use the data we collect to provide you the services we offer, which includes using data to improve and personalize your experiences. We also may use the data to communicate with you, for example, informing you about your account, security updates and product information.

How to Access & Control Your Personal Data

You can view or edit your personal data online for many of our services. How you can access or control your personal data will depend on which service you use.

Cookies & Similar Technologies

Depending on the service we use cookies (small text files placed on your device) or similar technologies to provide our websites and online services and help collect data.

You have a variety of tools to control cookies and similar technologies, including browser controls to block and delete. Your browser and other choices may impact your experiences with our products.
